EXHIBITION AND EVENTS AT THE HERBERT ART GALLERY & MUSEUM

From Here to There is a FREE exhibition at the Herbert Art Gallery & Museum that explores themes of journeys, transitions and transformations. It features the work of a wide range of acclaimed artists including Tracey Emin, Julian Opie and Gilbert & George.

The works have been selected by the Herbert Art Gallery & Museum from the Arts Council Collection, the largest loan collection of modern and contemporary British art in the world.

The works featured in this exhibition portray everyday objects and occurrences, but they invite the viewer to experience the world from a different perspective. From Here to There includes paintings, photographs, films, textiles and installations dating from the 1970s to the present day.

The show also includes works by Zarina Bhimji, Sophie Calle, Leo Fitzmaurice, Hamish Fulton, Anya Gallaccio, Mona Hatoum, Balraj Khanna, Richard Long, Rachel Lowe, Mariele Neudecker, Cornelia Parker, Simon Patterson, Kathy Prendergast, Marc Quinn, Donald Rodney, Yinka Shonibare, David Tremlett and Mark Wallinger.

There will be a display work of specially produced in response to some of the pieces in the exhibition by both a group of young people and an art group from Peace House in Coventry.

EXHIBITION EXTRAS

Contemporary Arts Conversation FREE
Tuesday 25 May, 6:30pm – 8:30pm

Taking the provocation 'What is the role of traditional art in contemporary culture?' a panel of experts in both traditional and contemporary arts discuss the thorny topic of what is art.

The panel includes Lucienne Cole, contemporary artist and performer, and Deborah Robinson, Senior Exhibitions Curator at The New Art Gallery Walsall.

Listen to the panel, pose questions and put across your view in this stimulating debate.

Phileas P. Souper £5
Thursday 3 June, 7:00pm – 8:30pm

Phileas P. Souper sees five musicians in a combination of comedy, mime and music loosely based on the Jules Verne classic 'Around the World in 80 Days.' From a tandem bike through Paris to a late train in Siberia, they offer an evening of joy, drama, and musical adventure for all the family. Booking advisable for this popular event.

Reel Parents: Amelia £2 carers, babies FREE
Tuesday 8 June, 10:30am – 12:30pm

A film screening based around the theme of journeys for parents with babies under one year old. The film focuses on the life of legendary American pilot Amelia Earhart, who disappeared while flying in 1937 whilst attempting to make a flight around the world. No booking required.

Last Saturdays: Journeys FREE
Saturday 26 June, 10:30am – 1:00pm

A riot of travel escapades that explore journeys past, present and future through art and play. Don't miss the amazing CryptoZoo, a secret world of strange and fast-moving creatures that you can become part of.

Suitable for all ages and abilities; children must be accompanied by an adult. At busy times you may be asked to wait.

Last Saturdays: Keep Calm & Carry On FREE
Saturday 26 June, 11:30am – 12:30pm

Journey back in time... 'It's 1941 and Coventry is once again under attack...' Led by costumed characters, this interactive session, will give you the chance to experience life in war time Britain, including what it was like to be in an air raid shelter when the bombs dropped.

Children must be accompanied by an adult at all times. Booking is essential. Please call 024 7629 4755 or email melanie.corner@theherbert.org for more information and to book your place.
